BEFORE AND AFTER

Consider Wall street, before and after shaking.

The millions of young men who went to France, or performed service in the army and navy at home, aided in putting the German army out of business and thus frustrated a possible later invasion of this country for the same army.

Wall street brokers and gamblers and profiteers coined billions of dollars during the war, and the patriotism of these young men has enabled them to save their wealth.

Wall street applauded their patriotism and said they were great. It cost Wall street nothing to say it.

But congress has been endeavoring to pass a bill granting a small bonus to each service man, as was done in Canada, and even in some of our states.

This bonus was not for the purpose of commercializing a duty well done, but was to serve as a partial recompense for the financial sacrifices made by these young men in severing their business connections and entering the army for a pittance in pay.

The two years of war cost each service man many hundreds of dollars in the loss of salary, but the same period enabled other young men who were not needed in the army to earn more money than they had ever received before.

Congress felt that something was coming to the service men, as do the people of the United States at large.

Inasmuch as Wall street has been the chief beneficiary of the enormous profits that have poured into this country as a result of the war, congress proposed that Wall street

This hit the Wall street pocket, and the street roared mightily in protest. It changed its coat over night.

The service men suddenly became vampires, who were endeavoring to engineer a raid upon the treasury.

The war was over and the street had no further use for the soldiers. That is Wall street.

But we have not reached the millennium, and some of these days Wall street with its subservient newspapers will be threatened with destruction and plunder by a wild and unreasonable mob. Only prompt action by brave men will be able to save the street.

But Wall street itself will not supply those brave men. It will not fight bodily for the protection of its own. Neither will its subservient newspapers and politicians.

It will yell lustily for soldiers instead—the despised soldiers for whom it now has no further use.

That, also, is Wall street.

What do you think of such men, you believe in the square deal for all men?

Jay Bandy, having purchased the City Tailor Shop, has renamed it, calling the new business, "Bandy's Tailor Shop." He is beginning with a line of classical work which speaks for itself as to the quality of his work.

—Apple hats and caps of latest style, at Buckleys.

The negroes are urging an anti-lynching plank in the Democratic platform. Perhaps if they should succeed they would have less dread for committing so many degrading crimes.

Louie Kohn is assisting in the Kohn Quality Store at Kennett this week aiding in disposing of goods during their big sale.

After several days visit here with his daughter, Mrs. W. P. Meatte and granddaughter, Mrs. Fred Thornell, S. W. Laws returned to his home at Linda Tuesday.

ARMY CAMP GONE

The Army Recruiting Camp of the Third Division of the Camp Pike Medical Corps left here Tuesday for Kennett. Inadequate roads necessitated their moving by way of Cape Girardeau; they having two ambulances, a touring car and truck.

During their three weeks stay here they have enlisted seventeen men into the army; six of which were rejected.

It is their intentions to cover the whole state of Missouri this summer taking new recruits and showing the people the usefulness of an American peace army of the highest type and superior quality in physical, mental and moral training.

New Name For Theatre

The motion picture theatre of this city, formerly known as the Dorris Theatre, having changed management a few weeks ago, has now chosen the name of "Empress Theatre."

A contest for the name was waged and a season pass was to be given the person who succeeded in giving a suitable name. Manager W. A. Stewart selected three competent judges who decided on the name above mentioned thus the winner of the season pass was Mrs. H. P. Harbert.

Mr. Stewart continues to screen good up-to-date pictures which are drawing crowds and compliments.

—FOR SALE.—Registered Poland China male, 2 years old, weight 500 pounds. L. H. Gale, Hayti, Mo.

Mrs. Iva Robbs, a former resident of this city and who now lives at Chaffee came down Monday afternoon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robbs.

CORINNE GRIFFITH

Corinne Griffith is known as the best dressed woman on the screen. Her gowns are designed especially for her productions and quite frequently this favorite of the silver screen sets the style for Dame Fashion. But dress is not the only asset Miss Griffith possesses; her facial expression is in a class by itself. There is not an emotion, shade or degree of feeling that she cannot express with her features. "The Climbers," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collateral" and "Deadline at Eleven" give an idea of her versatility. These features also show Miss Griffith in some of her latest gowns.

POLITICAL VIEWS

Senator Reed was unsuccessful in securing a seat in the Democratic National Convention which convened Monday at San Francisco. But a "Reed Man" got the seat. J. T. Bradshaw was chosen to fill the chair Senator Reed desired to occupy.

David Lloyd George of England, is a supporter of Warren G. Harding. Premier Lloyd George will endeavor to scramble on the Harding band wagon in time to get some sort of a seat, but some of the Republican press thinks that the Englishman will find a different type of an American from President Woodrow Wilson.

At the opening of the Democratic Convention the choice apparently swept in favor of W. G. McAdoo. Mrs. Percy Pennypacker and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbanks, representing the women's powers, are for McAdoo, although Mr. McAdoo has declined to accept the nomination should he be fortunate enough to get it. The American people will surely see his hat in the ring and him in the arena ready to battle with Senator Harding if the Democrats nominate him.

Were Mr. McAdoo successful in securing the presidency the White House would become a "house of the Wilsons." But the show of the Democrats depends upon their choice of nominee in this convention.

William Jennings Bryan in Frisco filled to all extremes with ideas which he holds from the other delegates. Yet he has not withheld his stand on all matters. He has, so far as declared to tell reporters his stand on the League of Nations.

HERALD SPACE

INCREASES SALES

We have said that an advertisement in the Herald columns would "bring home the bacon," time and again, and below we publish a letter telling us of their satisfaction. They have a large contract for advertising Galumet baking powder and consider this paper an excellent medium. Advertisers should use the home newspaper when wanting to "cash in" on their slow moving stock.

The letter is as follows:

June 15th, 1920

Publisher the Herald,
Hayti, Missouri:

Dear Sir:

We are enclosing herewith our check for space used during quarter ending May 22nd, and we want to extend our most hearty thanks for the general good position and consideration given our schedule.

In closing our advertising year for the season of 1919 and 1920 it is gratifying to note that almost without exception our sales have increased in your territory and we attribute this to a very great extent to the influence that your paper has upon the consumer.

$20.00 REWARD

Will be given to the person who will suit case from Bragg City, Team here Sunday. The name will not be revealed if this case is turned to Allen Billington, Bragg City.

Fire destroyed the garage George Merrill Saturday night. It was quite fortunate so well as fortunate, having just purchased new seven passenger Buick car and having it out at the time of the fire. Also the garage was close to the residence but a favorable wind carried the flames in an opposite direction.
